Synopsis of Talk:

This is a working sessions, where DSA (S) Children Education Services team members will come together for a sharing session on the various educational pathways for our children with Down syndrome. The team will present recent policy changes and the support DSA (S) provides for the better integration of our children into mainstream settings. There will be a sharing from a parent, whose child is receiving IFSP support from DSA (S).

The objectives of the workshop is to enable parents to:

1. Explore viable education options through provision of accurate & comprehensive information.
2. Learn the steps of the special education process, policy changes and regulations pertaining to students with disabilities
3. Orientate yourself on the child’s right and access to education.

Target Audience: Parents of children under the age of 5
