

Give Your Child Money Sense

Date: 18 May 2019, Saturday

Time: 9.30am to 12.30pm

Venue: DSA Centre, Studio 1,
Bishan Place, #09-01,
Junction 8 Office Tower,
Singapore 579837

Speaker's profile: Mr Edmund of Institute of Financial Literacy

Edmund has over 23 years of varied experiences in corporate and transaction banking, treasury management, systems engineering, ecommerce and social services. He was the CEO of the Singapore Cancer Society managing all aspects of the organization from financial planning, compliance management, manpower development and process changes.

He has a keen interest to conduct Financial Literacy talks/workshops. He is also a Science Olympiad trainer to students in Singapore mainstream schools.

Synopsis of Talk:

Kids are spending more money but understanding less about making good financial decisions.

As a parent and a key influencer and educator will learn simple, practical and age-appropriate strategies to help kick-start your child's financial education.

Please submit your online registration via Google link
Closing date for registration: 16 May 2019

Target age group: Parents with children who are below 12 years